VOLUNTEER

Equity Ambassador

RECRUITING: August - Early September via the Job Board
DEPARTMENT: UBC Okanagan Equity and Inclusion Office
SUPERVISOR: Jenica Frisque, Equity Facilitator
CONTACT: equity.ubco@ubc.ca
NUMBER OF POSITIONS: 6

PURPOSE:
The Equity Ambassador Program works towards creating an inclusive working environment at UBC Okanagan. The program aims to raise awareness on campus of equity and inclusion based events, initiatives and social justice issues in the central Okanagan.

Position Description

The Equity Ambassadors will:

- ✓ Gain increased understanding of human rights and inclusion issues.
- ✓ Support the Equity and Inclusion Office with their campus campaigns, such as Rule Out Racism, Positive Space, Sexual Assault Prevention, etc.
- ✓ Help develop and promote educational workshops, events, and materials that help to raise awareness of inclusive leadership, equity, diversity, and ending discrimination among student, staff, and faculty.
- ✓ Attend booths during campus and off-campus events.
- ✓ Collaborate with others on campus to address specific social justice and equity needs.
- ✓ Update the Equity and Inclusion Office's social media pages.

Commitment

2-4 hours/week from Sept 1 – Apr 30

Do you….

- ✓ Have an interest in human rights and social justice issues?
- ✓ Want to learn how to challenge and address sexism, racism, ableism, homophobia, transphobia, etc.?
- ✓ Want to collaborate with community and campus partners?

You will enhance your skills in….

- ✓ Effective communication and teamwork: through leadership skills, specifically in the areas of team-building, personal and professional growth, diversity/ awareness, collaborative decision-making, and networking.
- ✓ Critical thinking and inclusiveness: through the development of a greater understanding of human rights, diversity and inclusion issues

UBC
a place of mind
THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA