BACHELOR OF ARTS
Philosophy, Politics and Economics

Major description
Explore three of the most important fields in shaping our understanding of society, Canadian public policy, and the world. An interdisciplinary degree program at UBC Okanagan, the Philosophy, Politics and Economics (PPE) major encompasses philosophy, which teaches logic, ethics, and how to question critically; politics, which considers the interests and institutions that form public policies and determine the rules by which we are governed; and economics, which encompasses how we make decisions as individuals and groups in our increasingly global world market.

Program highlights
Register in courses such as:
• ECON 351 — Women in the Economy
• PHIL 338 — Philosophy of Law
• POLI 472 — War and the Modern State
Complete a Certificate in Communication and Rhetoric.

Looking for support?
UBC Okanagan provides a broad range of support services for students from admission through to graduation. Ranging from help with academics and careers to physical and emotional resources, visit Student Support and Resources for a full list of helpful supports. Some examples are included below:
• Academic & Career Development provides academic and career support for all undergraduate students
• Indigenous Programs & Services provides academic support to self-identified First Nations, Métis, and Inuit students
• International Student Advising supports international students with immigration, employment in Canada, and more
• Faculty Program Advisors provide faculty-specific academic support
• Disability Resource Centre assists with disability-related accommodations and programming initiatives to help remove barriers for students with disabilities and ongoing medical conditions
• Counsellors help students examine and explore their behaviors, relationships, feelings, or thoughts that cause concern or challenges
• Financial support is available to help students learn to budget, pay tuition, or apply for awards and scholarships

Your career options
Build the foundational skills needed to pursue a career in business, government, law, and commerce, or to pursue graduate studies in any of the fields of philosophy, politics, or economics. Visit the Philosophy, Politics and Economics (PPE) webpage and scroll down to the "Your Career Options" heading for more employment information.

Getting Started
First-year standing
Explore the Philosophy, Politics and Economics (PPE) program by visiting the Department of Economics, Philosophy and Political Science website and reviewing the Academic Calendar.
Learn more about your major requirements by logging into Degree Navigator and reviewing the First-Year Planning Guides.
Book an appointment with an advisor to discuss program or career-related questions. Find the advisor that is right for you by reviewing advising options available.
Visit the Student Learning Hub throughout your degree for free supports from peers and professionals that include tutoring in math, sciences, languages, and writing.

Moving Through Your Degree
Second-year standing
To declare the Philosophy, Politics and Economics major contact the PPE Program Advisor after completing a minimum of 48 credits.
Find unique courses to fill your elective requirements or add a minor.
Meet with an instructor or TA during office hours: ask a question, discuss an assignment, or go over lecture material.
International Students: Contact International Student Advising to review your study status.
Considering further education? Find graduate programs at UBCO and beyond. Research application requirements, admissions information, and funding options.

Third-year standing
Explore a topic of interest in depth by participating in Undergraduate Research. Apply for an Undergraduate Research Award to fund your research.
Explore co-op opportunities to strengthen your skills and build your work experience by applying to the Co-operative Education Office. Applications open in September to students with 3rd year standing or higher.
Study abroad by participating in a Go Global program such as exchange, faculty-led global seminar, or research abroad.
Receive training and support to help develop career and employment readiness by participating in the Arts Career Apprenticeship Program.

Preparing for Graduation and Your Future
Fourth-year + standing
Market yourself to employers by reflecting on your UBCO experience and identifying the skills and knowledge you developed through the activities you participated in. Meet with a Career Development Specialist for help with your resume, cover letter, and job search strategy.
Schedule an appointment with an advisor; the term before you plan to graduate to ensure that you will meet all academic graduation requirements.
Review graduation eligibility requirements and deadlines before you apply to graduate and learn about convocation.

Legend
Experiential Education opportunities are highlighted with a symbol. Plan ahead! Statements highlighted with a symbol must be completed during a specific term(s) or have an associated deadline.

How to use the Program Plan:
Tuum est! This Program Plan is designed to help shape your UBC experience, challenge yourself to try new things, and become the person and scholar you want to be to help make your time at UBC Okanagan yours. The Program Plan offers suggestions — you don’t have to do it all!
The Program Plan includes four categories:
• Explore the Major: Explore what you’ll be studying and learning. Make connections between your program and future career or education opportunities and goals.
• Connect and Build Community: Making connections will help develop your support network throughout your studies and beyond.
• Engage Locally and Globally: Get ready for life beyond UBC by accessing programming and resources aligned with your goals, interests, and career pathways.
• Develop Skills and Gain Relevant Experience: Expand your capacity to understand the changing world and embrace different perspectives by seeking out new experiences and opportunities.
BACHELOR OF ARTS
Philosophy, Politics and Economics

Explore Experiential Education
Participate in hands-on, immersive learning experiences.

Explore high-impact, “learn-by-doing” experiences that take your education beyond the classroom. Whether on- or off-campus, paid or volunteer, participating in directed experiences and focused reflection helps to increase knowledge, develop skills, clarify values, and build your capacity to contribute to your communities.

Experiential Education opportunities are highlighted with a symbol. Most opportunities highlighted below can be pursued at any time. Opportunities with timelines or deadlines are noted with a symbol.

Getting Started: Explore new opportunities and interests.

New to UBC? Participate in orientation and transition programming to connect with other students and get involved in the campus community.
Find on-campus events to meet new people and get involved with the campus community using the Events Calendar.
Meet a Student Connector at Student Connect for help with navigating campus and to learn more about the opportunities available at UBC Okanagan.
Follow @UBCOStudents on Instagram for campus tips, opportunities, and event updates.
Attend a Heat Varsity Athletics game. Admission is free with your student UBC card.

Develop Interests and Broaden Perspectives: Get more involved and build your skills and connections.

Branch out, get involved in student life, and have fun by joining the PPE course union or another student association to meet peers and participate in events and activities.
Get active! UBC Recreation offers activities like intramural sports, fitness classes, and other special events and activities.
Build your networking skills with alumni working in careers in your desired industry by using Ten Thousand Coffees and LinkedIn or by attending career events and workshops.

Commuting? Visit Collegia spaces on campus to relax, study, and socialize with others.
Planning to live on campus? Apply to live in the UBC residence.

Immersive Experiences: Take part in unique opportunities and programs. Find ways to immerse yourself in your experiences.

Explore professional associations such as the British Columbia Political Studies Association or the Economic Development Association of BC for more information about potential careers, networking and professional development opportunities, and more.
Give back to the campus community by volunteering or applying to work on campus: Student & Alumni Job Board.
Engage with your community in a meaningful way and help to create social change by participating in the Community Service Learning program.
Create your own student association, study group, or social club to connect with peers.

Apply to the Tuum Est Initiative Fund for funding support to attend a conference, fund a student-led program, or represent UBC Okanagan at an academic competition.
Find other work opportunities or apply to the co-op program to strengthen your resume.
Summarize and organize your academic and out-of-classroom experiences and accomplishments in a resume, CV, or portfolio with help from a Career Development Specialist.
Gain leadership experience by running for an executive position in a student association or the Student Union Okanagan (SUO).

Enrich your experience as a PPE student and develop marketable skills by joining the UBCO Debate Club.
Apply to the Work Study program to build skills and grow your professional network with paid on-campus positions that work around your class schedule.
Apply to Entrepreneurs@UBC to explore your start-up ideas through mentorship and training programs.
Book an appointment with a Learning Strategist at any stage in your degree for help with study skills and learning strategies.
Investigate requirements for full-time jobs or other opportunities related to careers of interest by looking at job boards and employer websites.

Learn about UBCO’s commitments to Truth and Reconciliation and Indigenous initiatives.
Explore course options and electives that broaden your own perspectives and worldview.
Learn about programs and supports available through the Equity & Inclusion Office.

Participate in cross-cultural initiatives organized by the Global Engagement Office (GEO) to increase cultural awareness and grow professionally.
Get involved with Student Union Okanagan (SUCO) resource groups:
- Indigenous Peoples Collective (IPC)
- Peer Support Network (PSN)
- Pride Resource Centre (PRC)
- Women’s Resource Centre (WRC)
- Sex Positivity Centre (SPC)

Join the Get Involved Program: sign up for volunteer projects in the Okanagan.
Attend Kelowna community events to get connected and learn about different cultures, activities, and experiences that make the Okanagan unique.
Build your cross-cultural skills and intercultural fluency by participating in the Intercultural Development Program.