How to use the Program Plan:

Tuur est! This Program Plan is designed to help shape your UBC experience, challenge yourself to try new things, and become the person and scholar you want to be to help make your time at UBC Okanagan yours. The Program Plan offers suggestions – you don’t have to do it all!

The Program Plan includes four categories:

• Explore the Major: Explore what you’ll be studying and learning. Make connections between your program and future career or education opportunities and goals.
• Connect and Build Community: Making connections will help develop your support network throughout your studies and beyond.
• Develop Skills and Gain Relevant Experience: Expand your capacity to understand the changing world and embrace different perspectives by seeking out new experiences and opportunities.

Looking for support?

UBC Okanagan provides a broad range of support services for students from admission through to graduation. Ranging from help with academics and careers to physical and emotional resources, visit Student Support and Resources for a full list of helpful supports. Some examples are included below:

• Academic & Career Development provides academic and career support for all undergraduate students
• Indigenous Programs & Services provides academic support to self-identified First Nations, Métis, and Inuit students
• International Student Advising supports international students with immigration, employment in Canada, and more
• Faculty Program Advisors provide faculty-specific academic support
• Disability Resource Centre assists with disability-related accommodations and programming initiatives to help remove barriers for students with disabilities and ongoing medical conditions
• Counsellors help students examine and explore their behaviors, relationships, feelings, or thoughts that cause concern or challenges
• Financial support is available to help students learn to budget, pay tuition, or apply for awards and scholarships

Getting Started
First-year standing

Explore the General Studies program by visiting the Faculty of Science website and reviewing the Academic Calendar. Learn more about your major requirements by logging into Degree Navigator and reviewing the First-Year Planning Guides.

Book an appointment with an advisor to discuss program or career-related questions. Find the advisor that is right for you by reviewing advising options available.

Visit the Student Learning Hub throughout your degree for free supports from peers and professionals that include tutoring in math, sciences, languages, and writing. Participate in Supplemental Learning – free, weekly, peer-facilitated study sessions.

Declare the General Studies major on the Student Service Centre (SSC) during the registration period between June and mid-September after completing a minimum of 24 credits.

Find unique courses to fill your elective requirements or add a minor.

Meet with an instructor or TA during office hours: ask a question, discuss an assignment, or go over lecture material.

International Students: Contact International Student Advising to review your study status.

Considering further education? Find graduate programs at UBCO and beyond. Research application requirements, admissions information, and funding options.

Give back to the campus community by volunteering or applying to work on campus: Student & Alumni Job Board.

Engage with your community in a meaningful way and help to create social change by participating in the Community Service Learning program.

Create your own student association, study group, or social club to connect with peers.

Connect your experiences
Whether you’re new-to-UBCO or nearing graduation, reflect on the questions below to help connect your values, interests, and education to your future career or personal goals. Practicing reflection can help deepen your learning, strengthen your connections, and encourage lifelong learning. These reflection questions are meant to help you build a UBC Okanagan experience that is unique to you.

• What are your interests and values?
• What kind of career are you interested in after completing your degree?
• How will the skills and knowledge you acquire during your studies help you in your career after graduation?
• What relationships and experiences are you hoping to gain from your time at university?

Use the Program Plan regularly throughout your time at UBC to build an experience that is fulfilling and rewarding.
