BACHELOR OF ARTS

French

Major description

Develop strong skills in French language and communication. Discover a world of Francophone literatures and cultures.

The study of French can be an excellent focus for your degree or a perfect complement to a program of study. French is one of the two official Canadian languages and the only language other than English spoken on five continents. Studying in French can be applied to many fields and can facilitate work in nearly every region of the globe.

Program highlights

The Faculty of Creative and Critical Studies run the AMP Lab, which houses projects that engage the work of the humanities, adding value to cultural artifacts through interpretation and analysis in a digital context.

Complete a Certificate in Communication and Rhetoric to enhance your degree and resume.

Your career options

Proficiency or mastery of the French language will considerably expand your career options and destinations. Careers include tourism, management, business, media, education, as well as civil and foreign services.

Visit the French webpage and scroll down to the “Your Career Options” heading for more employment information.
